Of Special Interest This Week

+ The White House Situation Room asked the FBIS Wire Services Staff to provide NSC Advisor McFarlane with relevant items from Soviet media on the arms talks during the arms negotiations in Geneva. FBIS routinely provides such services to the Secretary of State during such conferences. FBIS analysts also transmitted analytic notes to the delegation during the conference. Prior to Secretary Shultz's departure for Geneva, the PDB staff gave the Secretary a copy of an FBIS analysis on Moscow's public attitude toward the arms talks. The PDB staff also passed FBIS material on the arms talks, North Korea, and Ustinov's death to General Vessey.

+ Ambassador Hummel in Beijing asked FBIS Korean analysts to compile a full account of what Pyongyang's propaganda has said regarding the Korean peninsula since Kim Il-sung's visit to Beijing. The Embassy wants to use the analysis as a basis for discussing Korean peninsula questions with Chinese officials. FBIS is currently preparing an analytic paper in response to the request.
